

What do you mean you sent a letter to that doctor who represents Washington in the House? If Bully George finds out, he'll have us replaced.

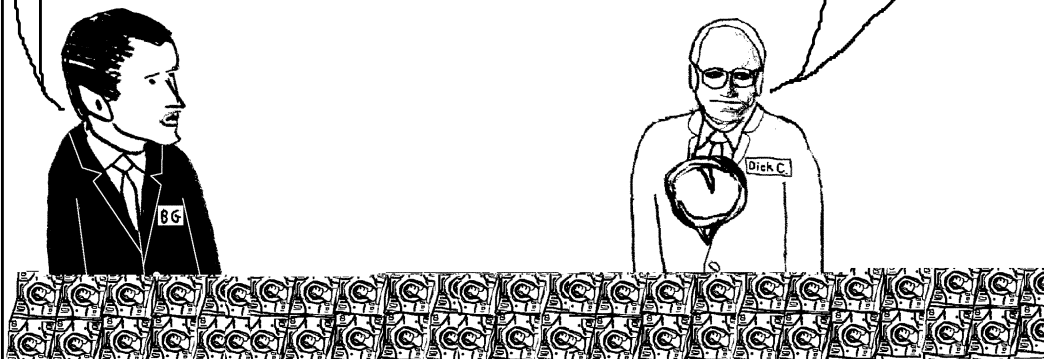

Don't worry. I sent the letter anonymously. Besides, Daddy can't even pronounce "nuclear." What are the odds that he's capable of reading a letter.

That's what Heartless Dick's for.

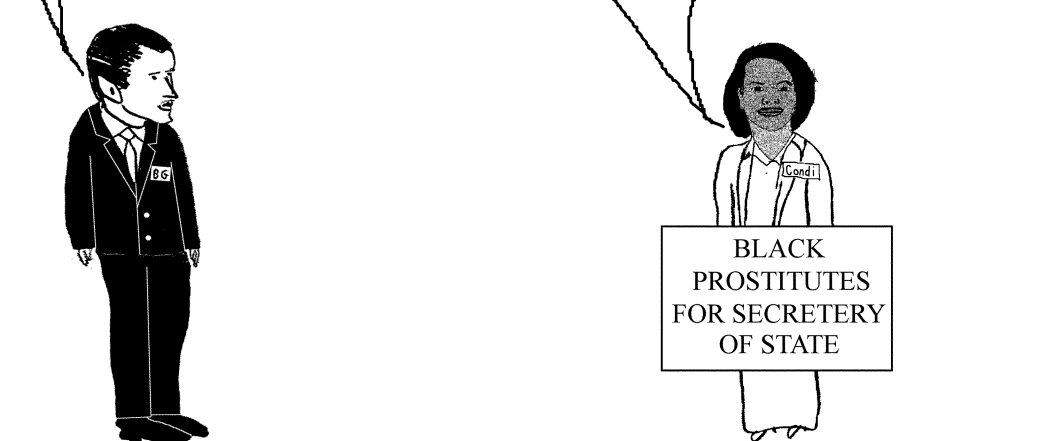

Dick, I'd like to have some really big fireworks for the 4th of July. Can we nuke Los Angeles and blame it on those guys we arrested for planning to blow up the Sears Tower?

Everyone knows they didn't have the knowledge, ability or any materials to do anything to the Sears Tower – other than pronouncing the name. If we blame them for nuking L.A., that might be carrying the hoax too far.

I wanted to blow up L.A. on the 4th of July and blame it on those "terrorists" we arrested in Miami. But Dick won't let me. He doesn't think that people will buy it.

Why not? Not only did they believe that ridiculous conspiracy theory we handed them about 9/11, instead of what their own eyes and common sense told them, a lot of them also believe you were actually elected in 2004.

Those who hate America hate fireworks and big bangs. So, if you are a patriot and not a terrorist you will enjoy my plan for the 4th of July. 4 more wars. That's right. Lots of shock and awe fireworks. But, it's hard to decide which oil country to hit next. So, we are having a drawing to determine the lucky next recipients of our democracy.
