

The United States Government does not torture.

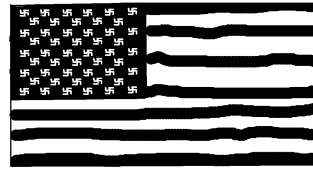

The United States Government does not torture.

The United States Government does not torture.

Ask your senator to vote to let me continue torturing Americans and other people and kids. Be sure and thank the Republicans on the Senate Armed Services committee for agreeing to new legislation allowing me to continue disregarding the Geneva Conventions and continue torturing Americans and others.

I'm confused.

