

Men, death is no excuse. I is deploying you to Iraq. Anyone who refuses to go, will be placed under arrest and executed.

Whew. I was afraid that Nancy would carry out the mandate of the voters.

Nancy's one of us. It's been four days since the Democrats have taken over the House and they have made no moves to impeach and arrest us. We are still profiting from the permanent war in Iraq and on the verge of starting a war with Iran. This should be a great year. In two years, we can blame all the disasters on the Democrats.
